Rapporteur: Mr. Salah Suheimat (Jordan)

1. The Preparatory Commission for the International Criminal Court, established in accordance with resolution F adopted by the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court on 17 July 1998, held its second session at United Nations Headquarters from 26 July to 13 August 1999, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 53/105 of 8 December 1998.¹

2. The Preparatory Commission continued its work in accordance with the terms established in paragraph 2 of resolution F of the Conference, and paragraphs 5 and 6 of General Assembly resolution 53/105.²

3. The Bureau of the Preparatory Commission, elected at its 1st and 2nd meetings, on 16 and 22 February 1999, continued its work with the following composition:

Chairperson:

Mr. Philippe Kirsch (Canada)

Vice-Chairpersons:

Mr. George Winston McKenzie (Trinidad and Tobago)

Mr. Medard R. Rwelamira (South Africa)

Mr. Muhamed Sacirbey (Bosnia and Herzegovina)

Rapporteur:

Mr. Salah Suheimat (Jordan)

4. The coordinators, designated by the Chairperson, in consultation with the Bureau, at the first session of the Preparatory Commission,³ continued their work also during the second session of the Preparatory Commission.

5. The Director of the Codification Division of the Office of Legal Affairs, Mr. Václav Mikulka, acted as Secretary of the Preparatory Commission. The Codification Division provided the substantive servicing for the Commission.

6. At its second session, the Preparatory Commission proceeded with its work on the basis of its agenda (PCNICC/1999/L.1), adopted on 16 February 1999.

7. Taking account of the priorities set forth by resolution F of the Conference, the Preparatory Commission agreed on a work plan, which, as in the first session, focused on two instruments necessary for the functioning of the Court: the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, and the Elements of Crimes. With respect to the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, the Preparatory Commission concentrated on rules pertaining to the following parts of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court: Part 4 (Composition and Administration of the Court); Part 5 (Investigation and Prosecution); Part 6 (The Trial); and Part 8 (Appeal and Revision). With regard to the Elements of Crimes, the Preparatory

* Incorporating documents PCNICC/1999/L.4, as orally amended at the 8th plenary meeting, on 13 August 1999, and annexes I (list of documents issued at the second session of the Preparatory Commission) and II, III and IV (documents prepared by the Secretariat on the basis of the oral reports of the Coordinators for the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, for the Rules of Procedure and Evidence related to Part 4 and for the Elements of Crimes).

¹ Under paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 53/105, the Secretary-General was requested to convene the Preparatory Commission, in accordance with resolution F of the Conference, from 16 to 26 February, 26 July to 13 August and 29 November to 17 December 1999, to carry out the mandate of that resolution and, in that connection, to discuss ways to enhance the effectiveness and acceptance of the Court.

² For details see document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1, paras. 2, 4 and 5.

³ For the list of Coordinators, see PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1, paras. 12–14.

Commission concentrated on the elements of war crimes. The Commission also undertook a number of informal consultations with respect to the crime of aggression.

8. At its 7th meeting, on 9 August 1999, the Preparatory Commission agreed on the following arrangements concerning the question of the crime of aggression:

(a) A working group on the crime of aggression will be established at the outset of the next session of the Preparatory Commission;

(b) At the next and the following sessions of the Preparatory Commission, the plenary traditionally held each Monday morning will be maintained, but will be significantly shorter, essentially limited to brief reports by the coordinators;

(c) A meeting of the working group on the crime of aggression will follow each of the Monday morning plenary meetings, until the end of the morning;

(d) Informal consultations on the crime of aggression will be conducted at other times where possible and appropriate, it being understood that this should be without prejudice to the requirements of the work on subjects which must be completed by 30 June 2000. Within the limits of what is practicable, the Secretariat will endeavour to provide the best possible facilities for those informal consultations;

(e) The above arrangements are based on a clear and general understanding that they will remain unchanged until 30 June 2000, and that no additional requests concerning organization of the work with respect to the crime of aggression will be made before that date.

9. At its 8th meeting, on 13 August 1999, the Preparatory Commission took note of the oral reports of the Coordinators for the Rules of Procedure and Evidence related to Part 4 and to Parts 5, 6 and 8 of the Rome Statute and of the Coordinator for Elements of Crimes.

10. At the same meeting, for ease of reference of delegations, the Preparatory Commission requested the Secretariat to prepare a document on the basis of the oral reports of the Coordinators and to annex it to the present report.

11. At its 5th meeting, on 30 July 1999, the Preparatory Commission was addressed by Judge Gabrielle Kirk McDonald, President of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia.

12. The Preparatory Commission took note of the Intergovernmental Regional Caribbean Conference for the signature and ratification of the Statute of the International Criminal Court hosted by the Ministry of the Attorney General of Trinidad and Tobago and the No Peace Without Justice Foundation, in Port-of-Spain from 15 to 17 March 1999, as well as the Port-of-Spain Declaration resulting therefrom; the international seminar on victims' access to the International Criminal Court hosted by the Government of France in Paris from 27 to 29 April 1999; the informal inter-sessional meeting hosted by the International Institute of Higher Studies in Criminal Sciences in Siracusa, Italy from 21 to 27 June 1999; and the two briefing sessions on ratification and implementation legislation of the Rome Statute, hosted by the International Human Rights Law Institute of DePaul University and Parliamentarians for Global Action on 31 July and 7 August 1999 at United Nations Headquarters in New York.

13. The Preparatory Commission also noted with satisfaction that, during its second session, 23 delegates had made use of the trust fund which, pursuant to paragraph 8 of General Assembly resolution 53/105, had been established to facilitate the participation of the least developed countries in the work of the Commission. The International Human Rights Law Institute of DePaul University provided accommodation for those delegates.

Annex II was prepared by the Secretariat on the basis of the oral report of the Coordinator for Working Group on Rules of Procedure and Evidence presented to the Preparatory Commission at its 8th meeting, on 13 August 1999.

1. The Working Group on Rules of Procedure and Evidence held 12 meetings, from 26 July to 6 August 1999. It had before it several proposals, in addition to those which had been made at the first session of the Preparatory Commission and which are listed in the summary of the proceedings of that session (see PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1). The proposals submitted at the second session are contained in the following documents:

- PCNICC/1999/DP.7/Add.1/Rev.1;
- PCNICC/1999/DP.8/Add.1/Rev.1;
- PCNICC/1999/DP.8/Add.2/Rev.1;
- PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.5 to DP.38;
- PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/INF.2 and Add.1.

2. The Working Group considered proposals related to Parts 6 and 8 of the Statute. Numerous informal consultations were also held on rules related to the aforementioned parts of the Statute, as well as to Part 5, which the Preparatory Commission had begun to consider during its first session.

3. Taking account of the views expressed in the Working Group and in informal consultations, the Coordinator proposed the following discussion papers for consideration at the next session of the Preparatory Commission (see appendix):

- PCNICC/WGRPE/RT.5/Rev.1, Add.1 and Corr.1, and Add.2 and 3 on rules related to Part 6 of the Statute;
- PCNICC/WGRPE/RT.6 on rules related to Part 5 of the Statute;
- PCNICC/WGRPE/RT.7 on rules related to Part 8 of the Statute.

4. The Working Group made considerable progress on Parts 5, 6 and 8 of the Statute, even though it was unable to conclude its consideration of the latter part.

The Pre-Trial Chamber shall take such measures as are necessary to protect this information under articles 54, 72 and 93, and to protect the safety of witnesses and victims and members of their families under article 68, paragraph 5.

(c) When a State or the Security Council makes a request referred to in paragraph (a), the Pre-Trial Chamber may seek further observations from them.

(d) The victims or their legal representatives shall also be informed of this review and may take part in it subject to the conditions laid down in rules X to XX.⁶

⁷ This provision will need to be considered as part of a general discussion of the rules which may be required to underpin article 19.

⁸ While undertaking a review under article 53, the Pre-Trial Chamber may have to address issues relating to article 19. In turn, this may raise issues about the right to appeal a decision under article 19.

⁹ This provision replaces rule 5.7 in document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1.

Rule 5.10

(a) Whenever the Prosecutor questions a person to whom article 55, paragraph 2, applies, or for whom a warrant of arrest or a summons to appear has been issued under article 58, paragraph 7, the questioning shall be audio-recorded or video-recorded, in accordance with the following procedure:

(i) The person questioned shall be informed in a language he or she fully understands and speaks that the questioning is to be recorded or filmed and that the person concerned may object if he or she so wishes. The fact that this information has been provided and the response given by the person concerned shall be noted in the record. The person may, before replying, speak in private with his or her counsel, if present. If the person questioned refuses to be recorded, the procedure outlined in rule 5.9 shall be followed;

A waiver of the right to be questioned in the presence of counsel shall be documented in writing and, if possible, be audio-recorded or video-recorded;

(ii) In the event of an interruption in the course of questioning, the fact and the time of the interruption shall be recorded before the audio-recording or video-recording ends as well as the time of resumption of the questioning;

(iii) At the conclusion of the questioning, the person questioned shall be offered the opportunity to clarify anything he or she has said and to add anything he or she may wish. The time of conclusion of the questioning shall be noted;

(v) The original tape or one of the original tapes shall be sealed in the presence of the person questioned and his or her counsel, if present, under the signature of the Prosecutor and the person questioned and the counsel, if present.

(b) The Prosecutor shall make every reasonable effort to record the questioning in accordance with paragraph (a). As an exception, a person may be questioned without the questioning being audio-recorded or video-recorded where the circumstances prevent such recording taking place. In this case, the reasons for not recording the questioning shall be stated in writing.

(c) When, pursuant to paragraph (a) (i) or (b) of the present rule, the questioning is not recorded, the person questioned shall be provided with a copy of his or her statement.

A judge so designated shall hold consultations without delay with the Prosecutor and, subject to the provisions of article 56, paragraph 1 (c), with the person who has been arrested or who has appeared before the Court pursuant to summons and his or her counsel, in order to determine the measures to be taken and the modalities of their implementation.

(d) When the authority of the custodial State notifies the Pre-Trial Chamber that a request for release has been made by the person arrested, in accordance with article 59, paragraph 5, the Pre-Trial Chamber shall provide its recommendations within any time limit set by the custodial State.

When the Pre-Trial Chamber is informed that the person is granted interim release by the competent authority of the custodial State, the Pre-Trial Chamber shall inform the custodial State how and when it would like to receive periodic reports on the status of the interim release.

They may consult the record of the proceedings put together in accordance with paragraph (g) of this rule. They may lodge written submissions with the Pre-Trial Chamber no later than 15 days before the date of the hearing.

They may also ask to intervene during the hearing, by addressing a request to that effect to the Pre-Trial Chamber no later than 15 days before the hearing. The Pre-Trial Chamber shall rule on the request after receiving the observations of the Prosecutor and the person.

(i)²⁹ States wishing to challenge the jurisdiction of the Court or the admissibility of the case before the Pre-Trial Chamber at the time of the confirmation hearing shall make a request to that effect no later than 30 days before the date of the hearing.

²⁶ Access to evidence referred to in the list shall be governed by the rules concerning disclosure, in particular those rules relating to the preparation of the confirmation hearing.

²⁷ The question whether and which time limits can be enlarged or reduced by the Court will also be addressed in the context of proposal of general provisions about time limits.

²⁸ This provision will be reconsidered as part of the comprehensive discussion of the participation by victims in the proceedings before the Court.

²⁹ These provisions will need to be considered as part of a general discussion of the rules which may be required to underpin article 19.

States may request the Pre-Trial Chamber to postpone the date of the hearing.

They shall lodge their written submissions with the Registry no later than 15 days before the date of the hearing. Such submissions shall be joined to the record of the proceedings and be transmitted to the Prosecutor, the person and the victims or their legal representatives, in accordance with rules X to XX.

(a) The President of the Pre-Trial Chamber shall ask the officer of the Registry assisting the Chamber to read out the charges as presented by the Prosecutor. The President shall determine how the hearing is to be conducted and, in particular, may establish the order and the conditions in which he or she intends the parties to explain the evidence contained in the record of the proceedings.

(b) Before hearing the matter on the merits, the President of the Pre-Trial Chamber shall ask:

(i) The Prosecutor and the person, and any representatives of States present, whether they intend to raise objections or make observations concerning the jurisdiction of the Court or the admissibility of the case;

(ii) The Prosecutor and the person whether they intend to raise objections or make observations concerning an issue related to the proper conduct of the proceedings prior to the confirmation hearing; and

(iii)³¹ The victims or their legal representatives whether they have any observations to make.

At no subsequent point may the objections and observations made under (ii) above be raised or made again.

(c) If the objections or observations referred to in paragraph (b) of this rule are presented, the President of the Pre-Trial Chamber shall invite those referred to in paragraph (b) of this rule to present their arguments, in the order which he or she shall establish. The person shall have the right to reply.

If the objections raised or observations made are those referred to in paragraph (b) (i) above, the Pre-Trial Chamber shall separate these issues, adjourn the confirmation hearing and render a decision on the issues raised.

If the objections raised or observations made are those referred to in paragraph (b) (ii) above, the Pre-Trial Chamber shall decide whether to join the issue raised to the examination of the charges and the evidence, or to separate them, in which case it shall adjourn the confirmation hearing and render a decision on the issues raised.

(d)³² During the hearing on the merits, the Prosecutor and the person shall present their arguments in accordance with article 61, paragraphs 5 and 6.

³⁰ This rule is a reproduction of rule 5.10 of document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1.

³² This provision will be reconsidered as part of the comprehensive discussion of the participation by victims in the proceedings before the Court.

The President of the Pre-Trial Chamber may also invite victims and their legal representatives to speak, if they have been allowed to participate in the hearing. In this case, the person and the Prosecutor shall always have the right to reply after the victims or their legal representative.

Subject to the provisions of article 61, article 69 shall apply mutatis mutandis at the confirmation hearing. The Pre-Trial Chamber shall permit the victims participating in the hearing, the Prosecutor and the person, in that order, to make final observations. The President of the Pre-Trial Chamber may, in exceptional cases, authorize anyone participating in the proceedings to speak again, in which case the person shall have the right to reply.

Rule 5.20

Measures to ensure the presence of the person concerned at the confirmation hearing³³

(a) When a warrant of arrest or summons to appear in accordance with article 59, paragraph 7, has been issued for a person by the Pre-Trial Chamber and the person is arrested or served with the summons, the Pre-Trial Chamber shall ensure that the person is notified of the provisions of article 61, paragraph 2.

(b) The Pre-Trial Chamber may hold consultations with the Prosecutor, at the request of the latter or on its own initiative, in order to determine whether there is cause to hold a hearing on confirmation of charges under the conditions set forth in article 61, paragraph 2 (b). When the person concerned has a counsel known to the Court, the consultations shall be held in the presence of the counsel unless the Pre-Trial Chamber decides otherwise.

(c) The Pre-Trial Chamber shall ensure that a warrant of arrest for the person concerned has been issued and, if the warrant of arrest has not been executed within a reasonable period of time after the issuance of the warrant, that all reasonable measures have been taken to locate and arrest the person.

Rule 5.21

Waiver by the person concerned of the right to be present at the confirmation hearing³⁴

(a) If the person concerned is available to the Court but wishes to waive the right to be present at the hearing on confirmation of charges, he or she shall submit a written request to the Pre-Trial Chamber, which may then hold consultations with the Prosecutor and the person concerned, assisted or represented by his or her counsel.

(b) A confirmation hearing pursuant to article 61, paragraph 2 (a), shall only be held when the Pre-Trial Chamber is satisfied that the person concerned understands the right to be present at the hearing and the consequences of waiving this right.

(c) The Pre-Trial Chamber may authorize the person concerned to observe the hearing from outside the courtroom.

³³ This rule replaces rule 62.1 in document PCNICC/1999/DP.8/Add.2/Rev.1.

³⁴ This rule replaces rule 62.2 in document PCNICC/1999/DP.8/Add.2/Rev.1.

(d) The waiving of the right of the person concerned to be present at the hearing does not prevent the Pre-Trial Chamber from receiving written observations on issues before the Chamber.

Rule 5.22

Decision to hold the confirmation hearing in the absence of the person concerned³⁵

(a) After holding consultations under rules 5.20 and 5.21, the Pre-Trial Chamber shall decide whether there is cause to hold a hearing on confirmation of charges in the absence of the person concerned, and in that case, whether the person may be represented by counsel. The Pre-Trial Chamber shall, when appropriate, set a date for the hearing and make the date public.

The Pre-Trial Chamber may, before taking the decision, invite observations from the victims or their legal representatives, in accordance with rules X to XX.³⁶

The decision of the Pre-Trial Chamber shall be notified to the Prosecutor and, if possible, to the person concerned or his or her counsel, and to the victims or their legal representatives, if they have been allowed to participate in the proceedings pursuant to rules X to XX.³⁷

(b) If the Pre-Trial Chamber decides not to hold a hearing on confirmation of charges in the absence of the person concerned, and the person is not available to the Court, the confirmation of charges may not take place until the person is available to the Court. The Pre-Trial Chamber may review its decision at any time, at the request of the Prosecutor or on its own initiative.

If the Pre-Trial Chamber decides not to hold a hearing on confirmation of charges in the absence of the person concerned, and the person is available to the Court, it shall order the person to appear.

Rule 5.23

(a) The provisions of rules 5.18 and 5.19 apply mutatis mutandis to the preparation for and holding of a hearing on confirmation of charges in the absence of the person concerned.

If the Pre-Trial Chamber has determined that the person concerned shall be represented by counsel, the counsel shall have the opportunity to exercise the rights recognized to the person concerned.

(b) When the person who has fled is subsequently arrested and the Court has confirmed the charges upon which the Prosecutor intends to pursue the trial, the person charged shall be committed to the Trial Chamber established under article 69, paragraph

The Pre-Trial Chamber may then establish a time-frame during which the Prosecutor may proceed in accordance with article 61, paragraph 7 (c) (i) or (ii).

Rule 5.25

Amendment of the charges⁴⁰

(a) If the Prosecutor seeks to amend charges already confirmed before the trial has begun, in accordance with article 61, paragraphs 9 and 11, the Prosecutor shall make a written request to the Pre-Trial Chamber and shall so notify the accused and the victims or their legal representative, if they have been allowed to participate in the proceedings under rules X to XX.⁴¹

(b) Before deciding whether to authorize the amendment, the Pre-Trial Chamber may request the accused and the Prosecutor to submit written observations on certain issues of fact or law. The victims and their legal representatives may also submit observations in accordance with rules X to XX, if they have been allowed to participate in the proceedings.⁴²

(c) If the Pre-Trial Chamber determines that the amendments proposed by the Prosecutor constitute additional or more serious charges, it shall proceed, as appropriate, in accordance with rules 5.18 and 5.19 or rules 5.20 to 5.23.

Rules 5.28 to 5.34
Disclosure

N.B. Following the provisional structure of document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1, the rules below are given numbers referring to Part 5 of the Statute. Since the provisions on disclosure are primarily of a general nature, they may better be placed in a separate chapter of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence. This question will be addressed at a later stage when the general structure of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence is discussed.

Rule 5.28
Pre-trial disclosure relating to prosecution witnesses⁴⁶

(a) The Prosecutor shall provide the defence with the names of witnesses whom the Prosecutor intends to call to testify and copies of any prior statements made by those witnesses. This shall be done sufficiently in advance to enable the adequate preparation of the defence.⁴⁷

(b) The Prosecutor shall subsequently advise the defence of the names of any additional prosecution witnesses and provide copies of their statements when the decision is made to call those witnesses.

⁴³ This rule replaces rule 65.1 in document PCNICC/1999/DP.8/Add.1/Rev.1.

⁴⁵ This rule replaces rule 65.2 in document PCNICC/1999/DP.8/Add.1/Rev.1.

⁴⁶ This rule replaces rule 5.15 in document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1.

⁴⁷ This rule may need to be revised after the comprehensive discussion on victims, in particular on the issue of non-disclosure of the identity of witnesses.

(c) The statements of prosecution witnesses shall be made available in a language which the accused fully understands and speaks.

(d) This rule is subject to the protection and privacy of victims and witnesses and the protection of confidential information as provided for in the Statute and rule 5.32.

Rule 5.29 Inspection of material in possession or control of the Prosecutor⁴⁸

The Prosecutor shall, subject to the restrictions on disclosure as provided for in the Statute and in rule 5.32, permit the defence to inspect any books, documents, photographs and tangible objects in the Prosecutor's possession or control which are material to the preparation of the defence or are intended for use by the Prosecutor as evidence for the purposes of the confirmation hearing or at trial, as the case may be, or were obtained from or belonged to the person.⁴⁹

Rule 5.30 Disclosure by the defence⁵⁰

(a) The defence shall notify the Prosecutor of its intent to:

(i) Plead the existence of an alibi; in which case the notification shall specify the place or places at which the accused claims to have been present at the time of the alleged crime and the names of witnesses and any other evidence upon which the accused intends to rely to establish the alibi; or

(ii) Raise a ground for excluding criminal responsibility provided for in article 31, paragraph 1; in which case the notification shall specify the names of witnesses and any other evidence upon which the accused intends to rely to establish the ground.

(b) With due regard to time limits set forth in other rules, notification under paragraph (a) of this rule shall be given sufficiently in advance to enable the Prosecutor to prepare adequately and to respond. The Chamber of the Court dealing with the matter may grant the Prosecutor an adjournment to address the issue raised by the defence.

(c) Failure of the defence to provide notice under this rule shall not limit its right to raise matters dealt with in paragraph (a) and to present evidence.

(d) This rule does not prevent a Chamber of the Court from ordering disclosure of any other evidence.

⁴⁸ This rule replaces rule 5.16 in document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1.

⁴⁹ This rule relates only to the inspection of material held by the Prosecutor. The issue of whether the Prosecutor should have access to material held and disclosed to be introduced into evidence by the defence also needs consideration.

⁵⁰ This rule replaces rule 5.17 in document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1.

Rule 5.31
Procedures for raising a ground for excluding criminal responsibility under article 31, paragraph 3⁵¹

(a) The defence shall give notice to both the Trial Chamber and the Prosecutor if it intends to raise a ground for excluding criminal responsibility under article 31, paragraph 3. This shall be done sufficiently in advance of the commencement of the trial to enable the Prosecutor to prepare adequately for trial.

(b) Following notice given under paragraph (a) of this rule, the Trial Chamber shall hear both parties before deciding whether the defence can plead the ground for excluding criminal responsibility.

(c) If the defence is permitted to plead the ground, the Trial Chamber may grant the Prosecutor an adjournment to address the ground raised by the defence.

Rule 5.32
Restriction on disclosure⁵²

(a) Reports, memoranda or other internal documents prepared by a party, its assistants or representatives in connection with the investigation or preparation of the case are not subject to disclosure.

(b) Where material or information is in the possession or control of the Prosecutor which must be disclosed in accordance with the Statute, but disclosure may prejudice further or ongoing investigations, the Prosecutor may apply to the Chamber of the Court dealing with the matter for a ruling as to whether the material or information must be disclosed to the defence. The matter shall be heard on an ex parte basis by the Chamber. However, the Prosecutor may not introduce such material or information into evidence during the confirmation hearing or the trial without adequate prior disclosure to the accused.

(c) Where material or information is in the possession or control of the Prosecutor which is withheld under article 68, paragraph 5, such material and information may not be subsequently introduced into evidence during the confirmation hearing or the trial without adequate prior disclosure to the accused.

(d) Where material or information is in the possession or control of the defence which is subject to disclosure, it may be withheld in circumstances which would allow the Prosecutor to rely on article 68, paragraph 5, and a summary thereof submitted instead. Such material and information may not be subsequently introduced into evidence during the confirmation hearing or the trial without adequate prior disclosure to the Prosecutor.

(e) Where steps have been taken to ensure the confidentiality of information, in accordance with articles 54, 57, 64, 72 and 93, and, in accordance with article 68, to protect the safety of witnesses and victims and members of their families, such information shall not be disclosed, except in accordance with those articles.

⁵¹ This rule replaces rule 5.18 in document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1.

⁵² This rule replaces rules 5.14 and 5.19 in document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1. As a matter of drafting, this rule could be separated in rules dealing with (1) restriction of disclosure, (2) disclosure of previously held material and (3) material and information protected under article 54, paragraph 3 (e).

(f) Where material or information is in the possession or control of the Prosecutor which is protected under article 54, paragraph 3 (e), the Prosecutor may not subsequently introduce such material or information into evidence without the prior consent of the provider of the material or information and adequate prior disclosure to the accused.

(g) If the Prosecutor introduces material or information protected under article 54, paragraph 3 (e), into evidence, the Chamber of the Court dealing with the matter may not order the production of additional evidence received from the provider of the initial material or information, nor may that Chamber for the purpose of obtaining such additional evidence itself summon the provider or a representative of the provider as a witness or order their attendance.

(h) If the Prosecutor calls a witness to introduce in evidence any material or information which has been protected under article 54, paragraph 3 (e), the Chamber of the Court dealing with the matter may not compel that witness to answer any question relating to the material or information or its origin, if the witness declines to answer on grounds of confidentiality.

(i) The right of the accused to challenge evidence which has been protected under article 54, paragraph 3 (e), shall remain unaffected subject only to the limitations contained in paragraphs (g) and (h) of the present rule.

(j) The Chamber of the Court dealing with the matter may order an application by the defence that, in the interest of justice, material or information in the possession of the accused which has been provided to the accused under the same conditions as set forth in article 54, paragraph 3 (e), and is to be introduced into evidence shall be subject mutatis mutandis to paragraphs (f), (g) and (h) of the present rule.

(k) The Chamber of the Court dealing with the matter shall, on its own motion or at the request of the Prosecutor, the accused or any State, take the necessary steps to ensure the confidentiality of information, in accordance with articles 54, 72 and 93, and, in accordance with article 68, to protect the safety of witnesses and victims and members of their families, particularly by authorizing the non-disclosure of their identity.⁵³

Rule 5.33 Ruling on exculpatory evidence⁵⁴

The Prosecutor may request as soon as practicable a hearing on an ex parte basis before the Chamber of the Court dealing with the matter for the purpose of obtaining a ruling under article 67, paragraph 2.⁵⁵

⁵³ This rule may need to be revised after the comprehensive discussion on victims, in particular on the issue of non-disclosure of the identity of witnesses.

⁵⁴ This rule is a reproduction of rule 5.20 in document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1.

⁵⁵ Consideration should be given to setting forth procedures which protect the accused's rights to disclosure of exculpatory evidence without compromising the existing obligations as to confidentiality, and the safety of persons and the investigation (see rule 5.32). Furthermore, consideration should be given to whether provisions on consequences of the failure to disclose exculpatory evidence are needed.

Rule 5.34
Continuing requirements to disclose⁵⁶

If either party intends to present additional evidence or material, whether previously or newly discovered, which should have been disclosed earlier pursuant to the Statute or the Rules on Procedure and Evidence, that party shall promptly notify the other party, and the Chamber of the Court dealing with the matter, of the existence of the additional evidence or material.

Part 6 of the Rome Statute
The Trial

I. Rules 6.1 to 6.9
Evidence

Rule 6.1
General provisions

(a) A Chamber of the Court shall have the authority, in accordance with the discretion described in article 64, paragraph 9, to assess freely all evidence submitted in order to determine its relevance or admissibility in accordance with article 69.

(b) A Chamber of the Court shall rule on an application of a party or on its own motion, made under article 64, subparagraph 9 (a), concerning admissibility when it is based on the grounds set out in article 69, paragraph 7.

(c) Without prejudice to article 66, paragraph 3, a Chamber of the Court shall not impose a legal requirement that corroboration is required in order to prove any crime within the jurisdiction of the Court, in particular crimes of sexual violence.

(d) The rules of evidence set forth in rules (x) to (xx), together with article 69 of the Statute, shall apply in proceedings before all Chambers of the Court.

(e) The Chambers of the Court shall not apply national laws governing evidence, other than in accordance with article 21.

Rule 6.2
Procedure relating to the relevance or admissibility of evidence

(a) An issue relating to relevance or admissibility must be raised at the time when the evidence is submitted to a Chamber of the Court. Exceptionally, when those issues were not known at the time when the evidence was submitted, it may be raised immediately after the issue has become known. The Chamber may request that the issue be raised in writing. The written motion shall be communicated by the Court to all those who participate in the proceedings, unless otherwise decided by the Court.

⁵⁶ This rule is a reproduction of rule 5.21 in document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1.

(b) A Chamber shall give reasons, which shall be placed on the record, for any rulings it makes on evidentiary matters, unless the reasons are otherwise obvious within the context of the proceedings.

(c) Evidence ruled irrelevant or inadmissible shall not be considered by the Chamber.

Rule 6.3

Agreements as to evidence

The Prosecutor and the defence may agree that an alleged fact, which is contained in the charges, the contents of a document, the expected testimony of a witness or other evidence is not contested and, accordingly, a Chamber of the Court may consider such alleged fact as being proven, unless the Chamber is of the opinion that a more complete presentation of the alleged facts is required in the interests of justice, in particular the interests of the victims.

Rule 6.4

Privileged communications and information

(a) Without prejudice to paragraph 1 (b) of article 67, communications made in the context of the professional relationship between a person and his or her legal counsel shall be regarded as privileged, and consequently not subject to disclosure, unless:

- (i) The person consents in writing to such disclosure; or
- (ii) The person voluntarily disclosed the content of the communication to a third party, and that third party then gives evidence of that disclosure.

(b) Having regard to rule 6.1 (e), communications made in the context of a class of professional or other confidential relationships shall be regarded as privileged, and consequently not subject to disclosure, under the same terms as subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a), if a Chamber of the Court decides in respect of that class that:

- (i) Communications occurring within that class of relationship are made in the course of a confidential relationship producing a reasonable expectation of privacy and non-disclosure;
- (ii) Confidentiality is essential to the nature and type of relationship between the person and the confidant; and
- (iii) Recognition of the privilege would further the objectives of the Statute and the Rules of Procedure and Evidence.

In making a decision, the Court shall give particular regard to recognizing as privileged those communications made in the context of the professional relationship between a person and his or her medical doctor, psychiatrist, psychologist or counsellor, in particular those related to or involving victims, or between a person and a member of a religious clergy; and in the latter case, the Court shall recognize as privileged those communications made in the context of a sacred confession where it is an integral part of the practice of that religion.

(c) The Court shall regard as privileged, and consequently not subject to disclosure, including by way of testimony of any present or past ICRC official or employee, any information, documents or other evidence which came into the possession of the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) in the course, or as a consequence of, the performance by the ICRC of its functions under the Statutes of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, unless:

(i) After consultations undertaken pursuant to paragraph (e), the ICRC does not object in writing to such disclosure, or otherwise has waived this privilege; or

(ii) Such information, documents or other evidence is contained in public statements and documents of the ICRC.

(d) Nothing in paragraph (c) shall affect the admissibility of the same evidence obtained from a source other than the ICRC and its officials or employees when such evidence has also been acquired by this source independently of the ICRC and its officials or employees.

(e) If the Court determines that ICRC information, documents or other evidence are of great importance for a particular case, consultations shall be held between the Court and the ICRC in order to seek to resolve the matter by cooperative means, bearing in mind the circumstances of the case, the relevance of the evidence sought, whether the evidence could be obtained from a source other than the ICRC, the interests of justice and of victims, and the performance of the Court's and the ICRC's functions.⁵⁷

Evidence in cases of sexual violence

In cases of sexual violence:

(a) No consent exists where the victim:⁵⁸

(i) Has been subjected to or threatened with or has had reason to fear violence, duress, detention or psychological oppression, abuse of power or other coercive circumstances; or

(ii) Reasonably believed that if the victim did not submit, another person might be so subjected, threatened or put in fear.

(b) In cases where the Trial Chamber is not satisfied that the conditions in subparagraph (a) exist, the Trial Chamber shall satisfy itself in camera that the evidence is highly relevant and credible before evidence of the victim's consent is admitted.

N.B. Consideration needs to be given to the issues concerning evidence regarding prior sexual conduct, as contained in PCNICC/1999/DP.1, rule 101 (iv).

Rule 6.6

Amicus curiae* and other forms of submission

⁵⁷ The wording of this paragraph needs further consideration in order to determine how to reach the final decision.

⁵⁸ This rule will be considered in the November/December 1999 session of the Preparatory Commission taking into account the results of discussions on sexual offences in the Working Group on Elements of Crimes.

(a) At any stage of the proceedings, a Chamber may, if it considers it desirable for the proper determination of the case, invite or grant leave to a State, organization or person to submit, in writing or orally, any observation on any issue that the Chamber deems appropriate.

(b) A brief submitted under paragraph (a) shall be filed with the Registrar, who shall provide copies to the Prosecutor, the defence and the victims or their legal representatives when they participate in the proceedings pursuant to rules (x) to (xx). The Chamber shall determine what time limits shall apply to the filing of such briefs.

(c) The Prosecutor, the defence and the victims or their legal representatives when they participate in the proceedings pursuant to rules (x) to (xx), shall have the opportunity to respond to these observations submitted to the Court under paragraph (a).

Rule 6.7

Solemn undertaking⁵⁹

(a) Except as described in paragraph (b), every witness shall, in accordance with article 69, paragraph 1, make the following solemn undertaking before testifying:

“I solemnly declare that I will speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.”

(b) A person under the age of 18 or a person whose judgement has been impaired and who, in the opinion of the Chamber of the Court, does not understand the nature of a solemn undertaking may be allowed to testify without this solemn undertaking if the Chamber considers that the person is able to describe matters of which he or she has knowledge and that the person understands the meaning of the duty to speak the truth.

(c) Before testifying, the witness shall be informed of the offence defined in article 70.1 (a).

Rule 6.8

Findings and evidence from other proceedings

(a) Without prejudice to the rights of an accused under article 67, a Chamber may, at the request of the Prosecutor, the defence or victims or their legal representatives when they participate in the proceedings pursuant to rules (x) to (xx), admit as evidence:

(i) With the consent of the defence, the specific factual findings of a Chamber from other proceedings;

(ii) Documentary or other physical evidence from other proceedings of a Chamber;

where such evidence is relevant to matters at issue in the current proceedings, and all appeals, if any, in the other proceedings have been completed.

(b) The Chamber shall hear the participants to the proceedings prior to admitting any such evidence.

⁵⁹ The need for a rule providing for a solemn undertaking for interpreters and translators should be considered in connection with Part 4 of the Statute, in particular article 44(3).

Rule 6.9

Self-incrimination by a witness

(a) A witness⁶⁰ may object to making any statement that might tend to incriminate him or her. However, the Chamber may direct the witness to answer the question or questions, after assuring the witness that the evidence provided in response to the questions:

(i) Will be kept confidential and will not be disclosed to the public or any State; and

(ii) Will not be used either directly or indirectly against that person in any subsequent prosecution by the Court, except under articles 70 and 71.

(b) Before giving such an assurance, the Chamber shall seek the views of the Prosecutor, ex parte, to determine if the assurance should be given to this particular witness.

(c) In determining whether to direct the witness to answer, the Chamber shall consider:

(i) The importance of the anticipated evidence;

(ii) Whether the witness would be providing unique evidence;

(iii) The nature of the possible incrimination, if known; and

(iv) The sufficiency of the protections for the witness, in the particular circumstances.

(d) If the Chamber determines it would not be appropriate to provide an assurance to this witness, it shall not direct the witness to answer the question. If the Chamber determines not to direct the witness to answer, it may still continue the questioning of the witness on other matters.

(e) In order to give effect to the assurance, the Chamber shall:

(i) Order that the evidence of the witness be given in camera;

(ii) Order that the identity of the witness and the content of the evidence given shall not be disclosed, in any manner, and provide that the breach of any such order will be subject to sanction under article 71;

(iii) Specifically advise the Prosecutor, the accused, the defence counsel and any Court staff present of the consequences of a breach of the order under subparagraph (ii);

(iv) Order the sealing of any record of the proceedings; and

(v) Use protective measures with respect to any decision of the Court to ensure that the identity of the witness and the content of the evidence given are not disclosed.

(f) Where the Prosecutor is aware that the testimony of any witness may raise issues with respect to self-incrimination, he or she shall request an in camera hearing and advise the Chamber of this, in advance of the testimony of the witness. The Chamber may impose the measures outlined in subparagraph (e) for all or a part of the testimony of that witness.

(f) Agreements on relocation and provision of support services on the territory of a State of traumatized or threatened victims, witnesses and others at risk on account of testimony given by a witness or witnesses may be negotiated with the States by the Registrar on behalf of the Court. Rule [B]

1. Subject to the provisions of rule [A], paragraph 1, a victim shall be free to choose a legal representative.

Where there are a number of victims the Chamber may, for the purposes of ensuring the effectiveness of the proceedings, request the victims or particular groups of victims, if necessary with the assistance of the Registry, to choose a common legal representative or representatives.

If the victims are unable to choose a common representative or representatives, the Chamber may ask the Registry to appoint one or more legal representatives.

2. A person shall be qualified to be a legal representative of a victim if he or she is admitted to the practice of law in a State or is a Professor of Law at a university.

4. The Chamber and the Registry shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that in the selection of legal representatives, the distinct interests of the victims, particularly as provided in article 68, paragraph 1, are represented and that any conflict of interest is avoided.

Rule [C]

1. In accordance with the ruling given under rule A, a legal representative of a victim shall be entitled to attend and participate in the hearings unless the Chamber concerned rules, giving grounds, that the representative's intervention should be confined to the deposition of written observations.

When a hearing is in progress, the Prosecutor and the defence must be able to reply to the oral interventions of the victim's legal representative.

If the legal representative of a victim submits a written request, the Prosecutor and the defence shall be allowed to reply within a period of time to be set by the Chamber.

(b) Unless the person is not at the seat of the Court and cannot be located, the request shall be notified to the person or persons named in the request, and to any other interested persons and any interested States.

Those notified have the right to respond to the request.

Rule B. Procedure on the motion of the Court

(a) In cases where the Court decides to proceed on its own motion pursuant to article 75, paragraph 1, it shall ask the Registrar to notify its decision to the person or persons against whom the Court is considering making a determination, to victims to the extent possible, to any interested persons and to any interested States.

Those notified have the right to make observations.

(b) If, as a result of notification under paragraph (a), a victim makes a request for reparations, that request will be determined as if it had been brought under rule A.

Rule C. Publication of proceedings

(a) Without prejudice to any other rules on notification of proceedings, the Registrar shall, having regard to any information provided by the Prosecutor and insofar as practicable, take all the necessary measures to give adequate publicity of proceedings before the Court to victims to the extent possible, or their legal representatives, to interested persons and interested States.

(b) In taking the measures described in paragraph (a), the Court may seek in accordance with Part 9 the cooperation of relevant States Parties, and seek the assistance of organs of the United Nations, intergovernmental or non-governmental organizations in order to give publicity to the proceedings before the Court as widely as possible and by all possible means.

Rule D. Assessment of reparations

(a) The Court may award reparations on an individualized or collective basis, taking into account the scope and extent of any damage, loss and injury.

(b) At the request of victims or their legal representatives, or at the request of the convicted person, or on its own motion, the Court may appoint appropriate experts to assist it in determining the scope, extent of any damage, loss and injury to, or in respect of victims and to suggest various options concerning the appropriate types and modalities of reparations.

Rule E. Trust Fund

(a) In making an order for reparations to be awarded through the Trust Fund, the Court may take into account, inter alia, the number of the victims and the scope, forms and modalities of reparations.

(b) The Court may order that an award of reparations be made through the Trust Fund to an international or national organization approved by the Court to cooperate or assist the Fund.

(c) The Court may, at any time before it has made a determination relating to reparations, order the Trust Fund to provide interim relief to victims, such as medical or psychological attention or other humanitarian assistance.⁷⁴

(a) The Pre-Trial Chamber, pursuant to article 57, paragraph 3 (e), or the Trial Chamber, pursuant to article 75, paragraph 4, may, on its own motion or at the request of the Prosecutor or at the request of the victims or their legal representatives who have made a request for reparations or who have given an undertaking to do so, hold proceedings in order to determine whether measures should be requested.

(b) The Registrar shall provide notification of the proceedings to the person against whom a request is made or any interested persons or any interested States, unless the relevant Chamber determines that the notification could jeopardize the effectiveness of the measures requested.

⁷⁴ Further discussion is needed to clarify under which circumstances the Court should provide interim relief to victims. It could also be necessary to find a way to avoid conflicts between the Trust Fund and the Victims and Witnesses Unit. Consideration should also be given to the consequences of interim relief in cases where the Court ultimately makes no finding of guilt and consequently is unable to order reparations and whether receiving this kind of relief could create the appearance of bias on the part of a potential witness.

⁷⁵ In order to award reparations, there must be a conviction. Once there is a conviction the question arises as to what standard of proof the Court needs to use in order to make its findings on all aspects of the reparations, especially regarding causation, types and quantum of reparations.

If any such notification is made, the persons or States shall have the right to make observations.

(c) If an order is made without notification, the Court shall as soon as practicable hold an inter partes hearing to enable any persons against whom a request is made or any interested persons or any interested States to make observations to the effect that the order should be revoked or otherwise modified.

Rule 6.X

(a) The Court may, in a particular case, where it considers that it would be in the interests of justice, decide to sit in a State other than the host State.

(b) An application for changing the place where the Court sits may be filed at any time after the initiation of an investigation, either by the Prosecutor, the defence or by a majority of the judges of the Court. Such an application or recommendation shall be addressed to the Presidency. It shall be made in writing and specify in which State the Court would sit. The Presidency shall satisfy itself of the views of the relevant Chamber.

(c) The Presidency shall consult the State where the Court intends to sit. If that State so agrees, the decision to sit in a State other than the host State shall be taken by the judges, at a plenary meeting, by a two-thirds majority.

(a) The Court shall have the primary power to exercise jurisdiction in cases envisioned under article 70 in the case of a positive jurisdictional conflict with the host State. The Court shall give sympathetic consideration to a request from the host State for a waiver of its primary power to exercise jurisdiction in cases where the host State considers such a waiver to be of particular importance.

(b) In other cases, in making a decision whether or not to exercise jurisdiction, the Court may consider, in particular:

(i) The availability and effectiveness of prosecution in a State Party;

⁷⁶ This rule does not affect whether the judges can travel outside the seat of the Court for other purposes.

⁷⁸ This rule replaces the proposal in document PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.31, which itself replaces the proposals contained in documents PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.27 (in part) and PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.29. It also replaces rule 6.34 in document PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/RT.5.

- (ii) The seriousness of an offence;
 - (iii) The possible joinder of charges under article 70 with charges under articles 5 to 8;
 - (iv) The need to expedite proceedings;
 - (v) Links with an ongoing investigation or a trial before the Court; and
 - (vi) Evidentiary considerations.
- (c) If the Court decides not to exercise its jurisdiction, it may request a State Party to exercise jurisdiction pursuant to article 70, paragraph 4.
- (d) Before deciding whether to exercise jurisdiction, the Court may consult with States Parties that may have jurisdiction over the offence.

Rule 6.33

Application of the Statute and Rules⁷⁹

- (a) Unless otherwise provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this rule, rule 6.32 and rules 6.34 to 6.39, the Statute and Rules of Procedure and Evidence shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Court's investigation, prosecution and punishment of offences defined in article 70.⁸⁰
- (b) The provisions of Part 2, and any rules thereunder, shall not apply, with the exception of article 21.
- (c) The provisions of Part 10, and any rules thereunder, shall not apply, with the exception of articles 103, 107, 109 and 111.

- (b) Enforcement of sanctions imposed with respect to offences defined in article 70 shall be subject to a period of limitation of (x) years from the date on which the sanction has become final.

⁷⁹ This rule replaces rules 6.27 and 6.28 in document PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/RT.5 and the proposed amendment to rule 6.32 in document PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.27.

⁸⁰ This rule, as well as other rules relating to article 70, will need to be revised after all the rules in the Rules of Procedure and Evidence have been completed.

⁸¹ This rule replaces the proposal in document PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.25.

⁸² The statute of limitations is intended to apply only when the Court chooses to exercise jurisdiction in accordance with rule 6.32. Further, it is not meant to affect the right to seek revision in accordance with article 84. Consideration should be given whether these issues need to be reflected in the rule. The question was also raised as to how the initiation of an investigation before the Court should be established.

The statute of limitation shall be interrupted with the detention of the convicted person or while the person concerned is staying outside the territory of the States Parties.

Rule 6.35 Investigation, prosecution and trial⁸³

(a) The Prosecutor may initiate and conduct investigations with respect to the offences defined in article 70, on his or her own initiative, on the basis of information communicated by a Chamber of the Court or any reliable source.⁸⁴

⁸³ This rule is a reproduction of rule 6.30 in document PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/RT.5.

⁸⁴ Consideration should be given to whether further preconditions or procedural steps are called for.

Annex III

Rules of Procedure and Evidence related to Part 4 of the Rome Statute

Annex III was prepared by the Secretariat on the basis of the oral report of the Coordinator for the Working Group on Rules of Procedure and Evidence related to Part 4 presented to the Preparatory Commission at its 8th meeting, on 13 August 1999.

1. The Working Group on Rules of Procedure and Evidence related to Part 4 held four meetings, from 5 to 10 August 1999. The Group had before it the proposals contained in documents PCNICC/1999/DP.1 and PCNICC/1999/DP.3, which were presented at the first session of the Preparatory Commission and which are listed in the summary of the proceedings of that session (see PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1). The proposals submitted at the second session are contained in documents PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.8 to DP.12, PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.14, PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.16, as well as PCNICC/1999/WGRPE(4)/DP.1, PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.2 and Rev.1, PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.3 and Rev.1, and PCNICC/1999/WGRPE/DP.4.

2. The Working Group considered proposals related to Part 4 of the Statute on the organization and composition of the Court. Informal consultations were held on the following three clusters: (a) rules relating to situations that may affect the functioning of the Court; (b) rules relating to some aspects of the organization of the Court, such as plenary sessions; election, qualification and precedence; organization of the Office of the Registrar and of the Office of the Prosecutor; and rules relating to defence council and witnesses; (c) rules relating to other aspects of the organization of the Court, such as replacements and organization of divisions and Chambers, as well as rules relating to texts and languages, amendments and solemn undertakings.

3. Taking account of the views expressed in the Working Group and in informal consultations, the Coordinator proposed document PCNICC/1999/WGRPE(4)/RT.1 as a discussion paper on rules relating to situations that may affect the functioning of the Court (see appendix).

4. While the Working Group had a general discussion on the rules pertaining to the three above-mentioned clusters, there was not enough time for the preparation of discussion papers on the latter two clusters. It is expected that consultations on those clusters will continue at the next session of the Commission.

Appendix

Discussion paper proposed by the Coordinator¹

Part 4 of the Rome Statute Organization and Composition of the Court

4.1 Rules relating to situations that may affect the functioning of the Court

Removal from office and disciplinary measures

4.1.1 Definition of serious misconduct and serious breach of duty

The judges, the Prosecutor, the Deputy Prosecutors, the Registrar and the Deputy Registrar shall be removed from office in such cases and with such guarantees as are established in the Statute and in the Rules of Procedure and Evidence.²

1. Serious misconduct

For the purposes of article 46 (1) (a), “serious misconduct” shall be constituted by conduct which:

(a) If it occurs in the course of official duties, involves the exercise of an activity which is incompatible with official functions and which causes or could cause serious harm to the proper administration of justice before the Court or the proper internal functioning of the Court, such as:

- (i) Disclosing facts or information which a person has acquired in the course of his or her duties, where such disclosure is seriously prejudicial to the judicial proceedings or to any person, or disclosing facts or information on a matter which is sub judice;
- (ii) Concealing information and circumstances, which would have precluded him or her from holding office;
- (iii) Abuse of judicial office in order to obtain unwarranted favourable treatment from any authorities, officials or professionals; or

(b) If it occurs outside the course of official duties, constitutes egregious conduct, whether of a criminal or other nature, that causes or could cause serious harm to the standing of the Court.

¹ This paper is subject to further discussion and is without prejudice to the positions of delegations; only parts 4.1.1, 4.1.2, 4.1.3 and 4.1.4 of the paper have been discussed in informal consultations.

² The necessity or otherwise of this paragraph will be reconsidered after the remainder of the text has been elaborated.

2. Serious breach of duty

For the purposes of article 46, paragraph 1 (a), a “serious breach of duty” shall be taken to have occurred where a person has been grossly negligent in the performance of his or her duties or has knowingly acted in contravention of those duties, such as:³

- (a) Failing to comply with the duty to request to be excused, knowing that there are grounds for doing so;
- (b) Repeated and unwarranted delay in initiating, prosecuting or trying cases, or in the exercise of any judicial powers.

4.1.2 Definition of misconduct of a less serious nature

The judges, the Prosecutor, the Deputy Prosecutors, the Registrar and the Deputy Registrar shall be subject to disciplinary measures in such cases and with such guarantees as are established in the Statute and in the Rules of Procedure and Evidence.⁴

For the purposes of article 47, “misconduct of a less serious nature” shall be constituted by:

- (a) Conduct which, if it occurs in the course of official duties, causes or could cause harm to the proper administration of justice before the Court or the proper internal functioning of the Court, such as:
 - (i) Interfering in the exercise of functions by a person referred to in this rule;
 - (ii) Repeatedly failing to comply with or ignoring the requests made by the Presiding Judge of the Chamber or by the Presidency of the Court in the exercise of their lawful authority;
 - (iii) Failing to enforce the disciplinary measures to which Registrars and other officers of the Court are subject when a judge knows or should know of a serious breach of duty on their part; or
- (b) Any lesser conduct occurring outside the course of official duties that causes or could cause harm to the standing of the Court.

4.1.3 Receipt of complaints

For the purposes of article 46 (1) and article 47, any complaint concerning any conduct characterized under these Rules as serious misconduct, serious breach of duty or misconduct of a less serious nature shall include the grounds on which it is based, the identity of the complainant and any relevant evidence, if available. The complaint shall remain confidential.

All complaints shall be transmitted to the Presidency, which may also initiate proceedings on its own motion, and which shall, pursuant to the Regulations of the Court, set aside anonymous or manifestly unfounded complaints and transmit the other complaints to the competent organ. The Presidency shall be assisted in this task by one or more judges,

³ Several delegations expressed the view that the examples indicated in the text need to be re-examined.

⁴ The necessity or otherwise of this paragraph will be reconsidered after the remainder of the text has been elaborated.

appointed on the basis of automatic rotation, in accordance with the Regulations of the Court.^{5 6}

4.1.4 Procedure

1. Common provisions on rights of the defence⁷

In any case in which removal from office under article 46 or the taking of disciplinary measures under article 47 is under consideration, the person concerned shall be so informed in a written statement.

The person concerned shall be afforded full opportunity to present and receive evidence and to make written submissions:

- (a) In the case of the Deputy Prosecutor, to the Prosecutor; or
- (b) In all other cases, in a plenary session of the Court specially convened for the purpose.

The person concerned shall also have full opportunity to supply answers to any questions put to him or her. He or she may be represented by a lawyer during the process established under this rule.

2. Procedure in the event of a request for removal from office

(a) Judges

(i) The question of whether a recommendation should be made to the Assembly of States Parties that a judge be removed from office shall be put to the vote at a further plenary session of the Court to be held no later than one month after the session held pursuant to rule X [the rule dealing with opportunity to present and receive evidence, make submissions, etc.]. If no scheduled plenary session will be held within that time, a plenary session shall be specially convened to allow the vote to be taken ...

(ii) If the recommendation is adopted, it shall be transmitted to the President of the Bureau.

⁵ Some delegations expressed the view that this text should include language to the effect that the Prosecutor would be responsible for dealing with any complaint against a Deputy Prosecutor, and that the Presidency should not be responsible for dealing with a complaint against the Prosecutor. Some delegations also suggested that a distinction would need to be made between complaints of serious misconduct/serious breach of duty (article 46) and misconduct of a less serious nature (article 47).

⁶ Some delegations expressed a preference for inclusion of the following language:
“Any complaint concerning the functioning of the Court in general and the conduct of the judges in particular shall, within one month, be the subject of a report by the judge whose turn it is to report, who may, after making inquiries, propose to the Presidency of the Court that the complaint be filed outright or that disciplinary proceedings be initiated. If disciplinary proceedings are initiated, the complainant shall be notified of any resulting decisions and may make submissions.”

⁷ Some delegations suggested that a distinction would need to be made between complaints of serious misconduct/serious breach of duty (article 46) and misconduct of a less serious nature (article 47).

(iii)

Option one

It shall be open to the judges in an appropriate case, if they decide not to make a recommendation to the Assembly on removal from office, to decide in accordance with article 47 that the judge concerned has engaged in misconduct of a less serious nature and to impose a disciplinary measure.

Option two

If the judges decide not to make a recommendation to the Assembly on removal from office, they may, in an appropriate case, refer the case to the disciplinary chamber.

(b) Registrar or Deputy Registrar

(i) The question of whether the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar should be removed from office shall be put to the vote at a further plenary session of the Court to be held no later than one month after the session held pursuant to rule X [the rule dealing with opportunity to present and receive evidence, make submissions, etc.]. If no scheduled plenary session will be held within that time, a plenary session shall be specially convened to allow the vote to be taken.

(ii) The President shall inform the President of the Bureau in writing of the result of this vote.

(iii)

Option one

It shall be open to the judges in an appropriate case to decide in accordance with article 47 that the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar concerned has engaged in misconduct of a less serious nature and to impose a disciplinary measure.

Option two

If the judges decide in accordance with article 47 that the Registrar or the Deputy Registrar concerned has engaged in misconduct of a less serious nature, they may, in an appropriate case, refer the case to the disciplinary chamber.

(c) Deputy Prosecutor

(i) The Prosecutor shall ensure that rule X [which deals with full opportunity to present and receive evidence, make submissions, etc.] is complied with before deciding on whether he or she should recommend to the Assembly of States Parties that a Deputy Prosecutor be removed from office.

(ii) The Prosecutor shall inform the President of the Bureau of his or her decision under sub-rule (X).]

(iii)

Option one

It shall be open to the Prosecutor in an appropriate case to decide in accordance with article 47 that the Deputy Prosecutor concerned has engaged in misconduct of a less serious nature and to impose a disciplinary measure.

Option two

If the Prosecutor decides in accordance with article 47 that the Deputy Prosecutor concerned has engaged in misconduct of a less serious nature, he or she may, in an appropriate case, refer the case to the disciplinary chamber.

N.B.: This rule only applies to a Deputy Prosecutor. As the removal from office of the prosecutor is a matter to be addressed solely by the Assembly of States Parties, the Assembly should establish a procedural regime to govern the matter.

(d) Prosecutor

Some delegations consider that there should be a separate rule giving guidelines to the Assembly of States Parties in relation to removal from office of the Prosecutor.

Penalties

1. Removal from office

Once pronounced, removal from office shall take effect immediately. The person concerned shall cease to form part of the Court, including for unfinished cases in which he or she was taking part. That person may not at any time in the future be elected or appointed to again form part of the Court.

2. Disciplinary measures

The disciplinary measures which may be imposed are:

- (i) A reprimand; or
- (ii) [A suspension from duty for a period of no more than [(X)] [6] months involving suspension of salary for the same period]; or
- (iii) A fine, which may not exceed [six months] of the salary paid by the Court to the person concerned. [The disciplinary chamber may decide to allow the fine to be paid in instalments.]

[3. Time limits

The penalties imposed for serious misconduct shall expire after two years, and for those imposed for less serious misconduct after one year. The time limits shall be reckoned as from the day following the day on which the judgement imposing the penalties becomes enforceable.] Parties.

Annex IV

Elements of Crimes

Annex IV was prepared by the Secretariat on the basis of the oral report of the Coordinator for the Working Group on the Elements of Crimes presented to the Preparatory Commission at its 8th meeting, on 13 August 1999.

1. The Working Group on Elements of Crimes held 10 meetings, from 26 July to 12 August 1999. It had before it several proposals in addition to those which had been proposed at the first session of the Preparatory Commission and which are listed in the summary of the proceedings of that session (see PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1). The proposals submitted at the second session are contained in documents PCNICC/1999/WGEC/DP.8 to DP.27; and PCNICC/1999/WGEC/INF.2 and Add.1–2.

2. The Working Group resumed consideration of the elements of war crimes, article 8 of the Statute, that it had already begun at the first session, but had been unable to complete. To facilitate discussion, the remaining provisions of the war crimes were divided into nine clusters, based upon the possible commonality of their elements.

3. Taking account of the views expressed in the Working Group and in informal consultations and the proposals by Governments, the Coordinator proposed the following discussion papers for consideration at the next session of the Preparatory Commission (see appendix):

- PCNICC/1999/WGEC/RT.4 on elements of article 8 (2) (a);
- PCNICC/1999/WGEC/RT.5/Rev.1 on elements of article 8 (2) (c);
- PCNICC/1999/WGEC/RT.6 on elements of article 8 (2) (b) (xxii);
- PCNICC/1999/WGEC/RT.7 on elements of article 8 (2) (b) (xiii) to (xvi) and (xxvi);
- PCNICC/1999/WGEC/RT.8 on elements of article 8 (2) (b) (x) and (xxi);
- PCNICC/1999/WGEC/RT.9 on elements of article 8 (2) (b) (i) to (iii);
- PCNICC/1999/WGEC/RT.10 on elements of article 8 (2) (b) (vi), (vii), (xi) and (xii).

4. There is also document PCNICC/1999/WGEC/INF.3 and Corr.1 containing a compilation of proposals by Governments on elements of article 8 (2) (b) (viii) (see appendix).

5. While the Working Group had a general discussion on the elements of all the crimes contained in article 8, there was not sufficient time for the Coordinator to prepare discussion papers on the elements of all the provisions of war crimes.

6. Substantial progress was made on article 8 during the current session of the Working Group. Further consideration of the article is required at the next session of the Working Group to ensure the formulation of generally acceptable elements of crimes in article 8, as part of a complete set of elements of crimes for all crimes laid down in the Statute.

Appendix

Discussion papers proposed by the Coordinator

Article 8 (2) (a)

[N.B. The present paper is without prejudice to its final format, in particular with regard to the inclusion of a general paragraph and footnotes.]

The following general paragraph would be included as an introduction to the Elements of article 8.

“Consistent with the general principles of law defined in article 30, it is presumed that all conduct described in the elements must be intentionally committed and the elements do not repeat the general intent implied in each action. Likewise, the elements presume that the conduct is not otherwise legally justified under applicable law referred to in article 21, paragraph 1 (b) and (c) of the Statute. Hence, the element of “unlawfulness” that exists in the Statute and in the jurisprudence of many of these offences has not been repeated in the elements of crimes. Absence of a lawful justification for a particular action need not be proved by the Prosecutor unless the issue is raised by the accused”.¹

Article 8 (2) (a) (iv): War crime of destruction and appropriation of property

Elements

1. The conduct took place in the context of and was associated with an international armed conflict.
2. The accused destroyed or appropriated certain property.
3. Such property was protected against destruction or appropriation under one or more of the relevant Geneva Conventions of 1949 and the accused was aware of the factual circumstances that established this status.

5. The destruction or appropriation was extensive and carried out wantonly.

Article 8 (2) (a) (v): War crime of compelling service in hostile forces

2. The accused coerced one or more persons, by act or threat, to take part in military operations against that person’s own country or forces or otherwise serve in the forces of a hostile power.

¹ This sentence may require further reflection since it also relates to the work of the Working Group on the Rules of Procedure and Evidence.
This general paragraph replaces the general paragraph under War crimes in document PCNICC/1999/L.3/Rev.1, p. 21.

3. Such person or persons were protected under one or more of the relevant Geneva Conventions of 1949 and the accused was aware of the factual circumstances that established this status.

Article 8 (2) (a) (vi): War crime of denying a fair trial

Elements

1. The conduct took place in the context of and was associated with an international armed conflict.
2. The accused deprived one or more persons of a fair and regular trial by denying judicial guarantees as defined, in particular, in the third and the fourth Geneva Conventions of 1949.

1. The conduct took place in the context of and was associated with an international armed conflict.
2. The accused deported or transferred one or more persons to another State or to another location.
3. Such person or persons were protected under one or more of the relevant Geneva Conventions of 1949 and the accused was aware of the factual circumstances that established this status.

Article 8 (2) (a) (vii) – 2: War crime of unlawful confinement

Elements

2. The accused confined or continued to confine one or more persons to a certain location.

2. The accused seized, detained or otherwise held hostage one or more persons.
3. The accused threatened to kill, injure or continue to detain such person or persons.
4. Such person or persons were protected under one or more of the relevant Geneva Conventions of 1949 and the accused was aware of the factual circumstances that established this status.
5. The accused intended to compel a State, an international organization, a natural or legal person or a group of persons to act or refrain from acting as an explicit or implicit condition for the safety or the release of such person or persons.

Article 8 (2) (c)²

Article 8 (2) (c) (i) – 1: War crime of murder
